

power and activism in real-life society from these narratives? (7.5)

6. (a) What are some of the policy interventions and social programs that can help mitigate the effects of social stratification and promote greater equality and mobility in society? (7.5)

(b) Explain the role of status groups in society and how they contribute to the formation of social hierarchies. Provide examples of status groups and their influence on individuals' lives. (7.5)

7. Analyze the impact of globalization and technological advancements on social stratification and mobility. How do these factors influence income distribution, job opportunities, and social class dynamics in contemporary society? (15)

Roll No.

Total Pages : 4

324502

December 2023

B.Sc. (Animation and Multimedia) - V SEMESTER

Sociology for Animation

(BSC-AM-19-502)

Time : 3 Hours]

[Max. Marks : 75

Instructions :

1. It is compulsory to answer all the questions (1.5 marks each) of Part-A in short.
2. Answer any four questions from Part-B in detail.
3. Different sub-parts of a question are to be attempted adjacent to each other.

PART-A

1. (a) How can animation be employed as a means of promoting social awareness and change within contemporary society? (1.5)
(b) What are some notable examples of animated works that have made a significant impact in the field of sociology? (1.5)

- (c) What is the primary focus of sociology when it comes to animation? (1.5)
- (d) On the context of sociology, how does animation contribute to the study of social change? (1.5)
- (e) How does animation play a role in portraying the impact of technology on society in the modern era? (1.5)
- (f) What are some key sociological themes and issues that animation can effectively address or depict? (1.5)
- (g) What are some strategies or policies that can help reduce social inequalities related to class, status groups, gender, ethnicity, and race? (1.5)
- (h) What is the relationship between social mobility and class-based stratification? (1.5)
- (i) How does race impact social stratification, and what are some historical and contemporary examples of racial inequalities? (1.5)
- (j) How do status groups influence an individual's social identity and interactions within society? (1.5)

PART-B

- 2. (a) Explore the concept of social justice and its relevance to addressing social stratification and inequalities. Discuss the role of activism and social movements in challenging and changing existing power structures based on these social dimensions. (7.5)

- (b) Discuss the various factors that contribute to the formation of social hierarchies and the perpetuation of inequality in different societies. (7.5)
- 3. (a) What is the concept of social stratification, and how does it relate to the notions of equality and inequality in society? (7.5)
 - (b) How does social class impact individuals' access to education, employment opportunities, and overall life chances? Provide specific examples to illustrate your points. (7.5)
- 4. What are the key differences between qualitative and quantitative research methods, and in what situations is each method most appropriately employed in research? (15)
- 5. (a) How does the concept of globalization affect patterns of inequality and social mobility on a global scale? Are there winners and losers in the global economy, and if so, why? (7.5)
 - (b) Investigate the role of political ideologies and power structures in animated storytelling. How are themes of governance, rebellion, and revolution portrayed, and what insights can we glean about the dynamics of political